

1. COLORS

have I seen all the colors there are am I left to hate them all is this life what it seems to be what are you trying to hide from me

2. RISE UP

when the sky tears apart we climb up to catch the stars to enlight this world that has covered us in scars

3. PROTOTYPES

it doesn't seem to get any better than this and I don't feel as if I could go any further this time we've come to a point that won't ever be missed there is no tomorrow, no tomorrow for us

4. HEAVEN & HELL

I've tried and I've failed we cannot be saved we've dug our own graves divided like heaven and hell

5. SAVE ME

save my soul
and wash my tears away I was fooled to believe that you could save me

6. SLAVES OF TODAY

let's raise our black flags up in the sky and tonight
we feel alive

7. WARDRUMS

what is it that blinds you, that makes you unable to see what is it that you believe in, that makes you forget what you ever wanted to be and what you never wanted to be what is it that you believe in?

8. LET GO

breathe in until my lungs burst and scream out until my voice cracks I'll let go of what I used to be but hold on to what I'm supposed to be
